

Steve Nelson

Professional Experience:

- Currently employed as an Independent Counsel at Steve Nelson Lawyer since January 2009. He is an independent advisor to developers, lender, community organizations and charter schools on the financing and development of new locations for operations.
- Previously, he was employed as the Associate Director and General Counsel at The Classical Academies from February 2009 through January 2015; and as the Assistant City Attorney at City of Escondido from August 1996 through April 2009.

Education:

- Education: Juris Doctorate from the University of San Diego School of Law in 1996. Bachelors of Arts in History and Spanish from University of California, Santa Barbara in 1989.

Other:

- Activities: Education Abroad Program in Barcelona
- Interests: Community development of public gathering spaces
- Languages: English and Spanish